

London Civic Forum Ebulletin: May 2012

London Civic Forum News

- 'Opening Public Services - a real choice for citizens?' free LCF event
- Launch of new Take Part section of website
- Thank you and Goodbye

Click here to read London Civic Forum News

London News

- 2012 Election Results
- 'Taking Greater London Forward'- Boris's 2012 manifesto
- '250,000 new apprenticeships for young people,' says Boris
- Modernising the Tube and creating more jobs
- Big Squeeze survey now open
- London Councils call for strengthened partnerships with Boris
- Mayor appoints his top team

Click here to read London News

National News

- The Queen's Speech
- Voter registration system to be updated
- First audit of the Big Society: more partnerships needed
- Government launches Community Rights website
- Build your own home website launched
- Draft Revised Statutory Guidance for Local Authorities on Services & Activities to improve Young People's Wellbeing

Click here to read National News

Funding, Events & Resources

- 28 May deadline for Clore Social Leadership Programme applications
- Deadline for Trust for London grants
- London Safeguarding Children Awards 2012
- Quarterly Big Society Awards
- Updated Trusts Guides published
- Digital Engagement Guide launched
- Accessing Social Justice in Disadvantaged Communities
- LVSC/NCIA Commissioning event
- Celebrating Refugee Week
- Want to campaign for better streets in your area?
- Vacancies

Click here to read about Activities and Resources